payable by the defaulting party. In such an event the Government reserves also the right to remove the defaulter's name from the list of Government suppliers permanently or for a specified number of years.

3. No representation for enhancement of price once accepted will be considered during the currency of the contract.

4. Any attempt on the part of tenderers or their agents to influence the Officers concerned in their favour by personal canvassing will disqualify the tenderers.

5. If any license or permit is required, tenderers must specify in their quotation and also state the authority to whom application is to be made.

6. The quotation may be for the entire or part supplies. But the tenderers should be prepared to carry out such portion of the supplies included in their quotation as may be allotted to them.

7. In cases where a successful tenderer, after having made partial supplies fails to fulfill the contracts in full, all or any of the materials not supplied may, at the discretion of the Purchasing Officer be purchased by means of another tender/quotation or by negotiation or from the next higher tenderer who had offered to supply already and the loss, if any, caused to the Government shall thereby together with such sums as may be fixed by the Government towards damages be recovered from the defaulting tenderer.

8. The prices quoted should be inclusive of all taxes, duties, cesses, etc., which are or maybe come payable by the contractor under existing or future laws or rules of the country of origin/supply or delivery during the course of execution of the contract.

9. (a) Ordinarily payments will be made only after the supplies are actually verified and taken to stock .

(b) The tenderers shall quote also the percentage of rebate (discount) offered by them in case the payment is made promptly within fifteen days/within one month of taking delivery of stores.

10. Any sum of money due and payable to the successful tenderer or contractor from Government shall be adjusted against any sum of money due to Government from him under any other contracts.

11. Special conditions, if any, printed on the quotation sheets of the tenderer or attached with the tender will not be applicable to the contract unless they are expressly accepted in writing by the purchases.
